Our Job is to Help Your Business Succeed

We do that through our four pillars of work

Engage with us and influence our region's business community through our four pillars of our work: economic development, defense development, government affairs, and member services.

Economic Development: Through business attraction and expansion efforts, we are able to support companies who bring quality jobs to the region. Supporting employers as they address workforce needs along with elevating the profile of our business community lets employees know they can secure a great job in the Pikes Peak region.

Defense Development: We build strong relationships with our military partners and the private businesses that support them to ensure the Pikes Peak region remains a global leader in aerospace education, research and innovation.

Government Affairs: The Chamber & EDC's advocacy works on your behalf to remove barriers, saving you money, time, and red-tape headaches while increasing available resources to grow your business.

Membership Services: We're here to help you promote your organization to the business community through our networking events. We provide information and access to resources through targeted programming to help your business succeed.

Events

Our Networking Events connect businesses for solution-oriented conversations, as well as some fun networking opportunities. These monthly events are primarily attended by our small to mid-sized companies, averaging 50-150 attendees.
